ScribeAmerica Announces Top Talent Joining Leadership Team in 2022

New leadership enhances ScribeAmerica's mission-driven focus

FORT LAUDERDALE, FLORIDA, August 4, 2022 — ScribeAmerica, the industry-leading professional provider support and scribe management company, is excited to announce the hiring of top-tier talent to bolster and lead critical functions within the organization.

“These leadership hires reinforce our longstanding commitment to building an exceptional management team with diverse backgrounds and experiences,” said Dave King, Executive Chairman of ScribeAmerica. “Our new leaders demonstrate our continued investment in our mission to enable healthcare teams to work at top of license and deliver high-quality, cost-effective care to patients.”

“The proven talent that we are bringing into the organization positions us to successfully navigate the increasing demand we are experiencing across our full suite of services,” says ScribeAmerica President and Chief Operating Officer Tony Andrulonis. “Their experience will provide additional value as we continue to strategically enhance our offerings that improve efficiency, drive down costs and reduce clinician burnout.”

ScribeAmerica is excited to welcome three outstanding executives: Brian Hudson, Executive Vice President of Sales & Marketing; Marla Sanfilippo, MBA, MHA Senior Vice President of National Accounts; and, David Osborne, Vice President of Talent Acquisition

Brian Hudson will lead our business development team, developing strategies to grow organic new business and to expand our footprint within existing clients. He will work closely with leaders from the nation's blue chip health systems and provider groups to build deeper relationships and broaden the solutions ScribeAmerica can offer clients.

Brian comes to ScribeAmerica after serving as the Senior Vice President of Sales at Avant Healthcare Professionals. He has also served as Vice President of Sales at Anthelio Healthcare Solutions and as Managing Director at KForce Inc. View Brian Hudson on LinkedIn.

Marla Sanfilippo's role includes leadership of the overall relationship with Scribe America's largest national customers, coordinating customer use of the company's comprehensive suite of services and supporting the overall growth strategies.

Marla's previous experience includes Vice President roles with Community Psychiatry, Envision Physicians Services, and TeamHealth. She has a track record of success in working collaboratively with various health systems and healthcare leaders throughout the country. View Marla Sanfilippo on LinkedIn.

David Osborne will oversee the identification, recruitment and onboarding of candidates to fill essential company roles nationally. David's background includes senior management roles with Fortune 500 companies Gannett and HUB International, and a TOP 40 company, Lowe's. He has led both national and global teams, building out Talent Acquisition organizations and implementing technology to support high-volume recruitment. View David Osborne on LinkedIn.
